TEST CASE WILL BE TRIED AGAIN

Suit to Collect Money Subscribed
for Stock in Creamery Co.,
Will Settle Ten Others

JURY DISAGREED BEFORE

Ben Riley Pleads Guilty to Gaming
and is Fined $5 and Costs—
Many Cases Settled

The case of the Excelsior Creamery company against T. E. McAllister will be tried tomorrow in circuit court. The case is for the collection of stock in the old creamery and ten other similar cases depend on the result. This suit was tried once before, the jury failing to reach a verdict.

To fill vacancies on the jury Judge Sparks ordered the names of six men drawn. The jury commissioners drew the names of Jesse Peters, Union township; Joseph G. McCoy, Posey; George H. Bell, Center; James O. Durham, Washington; R. P. Havens, Rushville and Hugh Abercrombie, Rushville, as the men to serve as the extra jurors.

Benjamin Riley appeared in court this morning to answer to the charge of gaming. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He was indicted by the grand jury, in the batch of 45 indictments. This leaves but two indictments to be accounted for.

The motion for a change of venue in the suit of Elma Porter against John G. Gartin was granted, the court sending the case to the Fayette circuit court and giving five days to perfect the change.

By agreement Sanford Hill was allowed the sum of $60 on his claim against the estate of the late James A. Hill. Sanford Hill asked for the sum of $200. The suit was directed against Owen S. Hill, the administrator of the estate.

Mrs. Bertha Blount was given a judgment for $100 against John D. Stewart. The suit was on an account the demand being $125.

Edward Schonebaum, receiver of the Mammet Coal Company, was given a judgment against William Emsweller for $91.38. The suit was dismissed as to Cleo Emsweller and judgment taken against William Emsweller.

The suit of Henry G. Hackman against John Cupp, on an account, was dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

TRAIN ROBBER TO BE BROUGHT HERE

Earl W. Fierce, Implicated With
John O. Storey in Hold-up in Rushville, is Expected

WILL FACE LARCENY CHARGE

Pennsylvania railway detectives were expected here today from Bloomington, Ill., with Earl W. Fierce, who is alleged to have been implicated with John O. Storey in the robbery of the crew of a Big Four train here several months ago.

Storey has been sentenced to the Joliet prison for burglary and Fierce will face a grand larceny charge here. It will be recalled that the hold-up of the train crew was one of the most daring ever pulled off here. Storey was caught in Bloomington and Fierce in Missouri. Fierce testified at the trial of Storey. It is understood that he admits his part in the crime here and will be taken before the grand jury upon his arrival. The officers reached Columbus with him last night and were expected here today.

Economy And Efficiency Urged By New Governor

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 8.—Economy and efficiency in handling of state affairs by the abolishment of numerous offices and through the centralization of control of state work was the keynote of Gov. James P. Goodrich's message to the seventieth general assembly delivered today shortly after the inauguration of the chief executive.

Delivering one of the most progressive messages ever heard in Indiana legislative halls, the governor fairly took the legislators off their feet with his recommendations.

He asked that a constitutional convention be called to meet in January, 1918 to draft a new basic law for the state.

He urged the revision of the state taxation laws by the levying of an excise tax on public service, and other foreign and domestic corporations and the increasing of the tax levied on insurance companies; by the enactment of an amendment to the constitution to allow the legislature to classify property for taxation purposes.

Slashing right and left the governor recommended that the following state departments be abolished:

Oil department consisting of fifty-nine deputies; chief oil inspector and clerical force and instead that the work be done by the food and drug commissioner's department.

State statistician, and instead the distribution of his work among the various commissions and department heads now in existence.

State fish and game commission; state board of forestry; state geologist; state entomologist and instead the establishment of a commission of four to be known as the state conservation commission, the members of which shall serve without pay; this commission would also have charge of the state park system.

Abolishment of the office of attorney general as an elective office; provision for his appointment by the governor and that deputies under him serve as legal advisors of the various commissions and boards instead of counsels appointed by these boards as at present and paid out of state funds.

The governor even advocated the abolishment of the office of legal clerk to the governor, saying that this work could and should be done by the attorney general.

The governor recommended the reduction of the quartermaster general's salary by $1,000 a year as the federal government now pays him that amount. Other important recommendations are:

Creation of a state highway commission.

Establishment of a department of insurance and banking.

Regulation of fire insurance rates by the state.

Provision for the adoption of the commission form of government by cities.

Appropriation of money for an efficiency survey for all state offices in order to eliminate duplication, waste and leakage.

A constitutional amendment to provide for the handling of state finances by the budget system; a constitutional amendment prohibiting the increase of any official's salary during his term of office; a constitutional amendment making the office of state superintendent of public instruction appointive instead of elective.

SHORT COURSE OPENED TODAY

Fifteenth Annual Session of School for Indiana Farmers Likely to Set New Record

PROGRAM MOST ELABORATE

In Addition to Regular Courses in Farming Home Making, Are
Special Ones for Young People

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 8.—Indiana's farmers, the bone and sinew of the Hoosier commonwealth, are assembling at Purdue University today for the great annual education assembly, the Farmers' Short Course. Men, women, boys and girls are here, practically every agricultural community of the state being represented. Corn and wheat growers, dairymen, livestock breeders, fruit growers, poultrymen, have traveled far from their farms to study and master the problem of growing larger and better crops, and with them are their wives, sons and daughters. Each has his or her separate line of work.

"This is the fifteenth annual Short Course and in all probability, this year's enrollment will even exceed the 1916 attendance which was close to 2,000. The program is the most elaborate yet offered, including numerous new features, presenting world famous lecturers and laying particular stress upon practical demonstrations of farm methods and upon the home and social side of the rural life problem. The woman's department has an especially attractive program dealing with all phases of home-making, and for the young people there is an abundance of valuable work. The University authorities are sparing no effort to

BUY LIFE MOTOR FOR COMMUNITY

Three Physicians and I. & C. Traction Company Purchase Device to Save Human Life

ARE WIDELY PRAISED FOR IT

Life Motor Will be Kept at Sexton's
Sanatorium for General Use
of the Public

Before leaving here J. N. Harkins of the Respiratory Apparatus company of Chicago sold to three Rushville physicians and the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company a Life Motor for the use of the public at large in cases of asphyxiation from electric shock, drowning, gas poisoning and in still born baby cases.

The three physicians—Dr. Lowell M. Green, Dr. J. C. Sexton and Dr. Frank H. Green, bear half of the expense of the purchase and the traction company the other half. The Life Motor will be kept at the Sexton sanatorium in readiness for use at any time by anyone, and the sanatorium should be notified in case of an accident in which the instrument could be used.

The physicians and the traction company were being widely praised today, when it became known they had made the purchase, for this expression of civic patriotism in guarding against unnecessary loss of life. Compliments regarding their generosity will be made universally throughout the city and county for this step which may save many people from death whenever the emergency arises. The Life Motor is a perfect mechanical device which stands between death and a human being who is

SAYS VICTORY FOLLOWS UNION

Dr. M. C. Pearson of Indianapolis
Churches Asserts Can Win by Getting Together

ADDRESSES MEN'S MEETING

Secretary Details Accomplishments
of Indianapolis Federation in Three Years

Counseling the united action of church people as a means of routing the forces of evil and that the church above all things be militant, in both a constructive and destructive way, Dr. Morton C. Pearson, secretary of the Indianapolis Church Federation, addressed a men's meeting at the Main Street Christian church Sunday afternoon.

The union meeting was the first of a series of Sunday afternoon gatherings to be held during the simultaneous evangelistic campaign of the Protestant churches of the city which was started last week with union meeting in observance of the week of prayer. Dr. Pearson praised this sort of united effort on the part of the churches and said that a similar plan of campaign had been mapped out by the Indianapolis Church Federation, beginning with the observance of the week of prayer which starts next week.

Summing up the points he made during his address, Dr. Pearson said the church should be permanent and invincible, militant in both a constructive and destructive way, should be a unit and must have a passion of evangelism.

Dr. Pearson devoted much of his talk to relating what had been accomplished by the Indianapolis Church Federation because the Protestant churches were united and worked with a common aim. He said there are 132 churches representing 65,000 men and women in the federation and that they have become an immense force for good in the city.

Dr. Pearson recalled that the church federation took a stand against commercialized vice in Indianapolis and that by means of a law passed two years ago, 24 centers of organized vice had been eradicated and more than a hundred immoral houses had been forced out.

"Two years ago we took a hand in politics and cleaned out the court house," he continued. "We put in the best set of Christian men that were ever in the court house. We cleaned out the ring and when the smoke had cleared there was just one of the old organization left and he was a hold-over or he would not have been there."

"In the last election the forces aligned themselves in the same way. The prosecutor and sheriff, the officials who had to do with the enforcement of the laws we were interested in, were up for re-election and they both had made splendid records. Therefore, we came out in the open and fought for the election of these men. We worked through the press and in every other way with the result that these officials for whom we worked received a plurality of over 4,000 votes in the county, more than the candidate for president on their ticket."

"We represent 65,000 men and women and we will get what we want in this city election or I miss my guess. We can't always get what we want from the present city administration, but we will clean out the city hall at this coming election."

"There is already a candidate for the nomination for mayor, a splendid young man, Charles Jewett, son of a Methodist minister, a clean-cut young fellow and a Harvard graduate. We all sincerely hope that he will be elected and that we will lose sight of Lew Shank entirely. If he

GANTNER WINS A PLACE

Democrat Gets Old Job as Engrossing Clerk in State Senate

John Gantner of this city has landed an appointment in the state senate as an engrossing clerk, a position he has held for several sessions of the legislature. Gantner, who is a democrat, obtained his appointment through the influence of Walter Chambers, state senator from Henry county. Chambers was also district chairman during the last campaign. Gantner went to Indianapolis this morning to take up his duties.

INCREASE IN CROWDS SEEN

"Go to Church Sunday" Marked by Larger Attendance and Opening of Revivals

U. P. MEETING STARTS TONIGHT

Revivals Also Begin at St. Paul's M. E. and First Presbyterian Churches

"Go To Church Sunday," which was observed here yesterday, was marked by increased attendance at all of the churches and the beginning of two protracted meetings. The third revival, that the United Presbyterian church, will start tonight.

Special sermons were preached at all of the churches and a men's meeting was held in the afternoon. The Rev. W. M. Whitsitt started a revival at St. Paul's M. E. church with two sermons yesterday. He is assisted by Harry Ross, singing evangelist, and his wife. The Rev. Frank W. Grossman of Franklin will conduct the revival at the First Presbyterian. He preached twice Sunday. The Rev. David D. Dadds of Xenia, O., came today and will preach for the first time at the United Presbyterian church tonight.

No revival will be held at the First Baptist church until after the new church home is dedicated. No special meetings will be held at the Main Street Christian church just now, but special stress was laid on Sunday's meetings. "Vision Sunday" was observed at Sunday school and a campaign mapped out for the year. John A. Titsworth, adult department superintendent, made a short talk in which he visualized the plans to be followed by the school.

Dr. Grossman spoke on "Unconscious Influence" at the First Presbyterian church last night, taking for his text, John 20:8, "Then went in also that other disciple who came first unto the tomb and he saw and believed."

"Influence is a law of the universe," said Dr. Grossman. "Man influences man, voter the politician, teacher the pupil, children their parents and in some homes even parents influence their children."

"Christ's influence is Christianity's power, Christianity in turn influences the world. We shall confine our thoughts to only one branch of this great thought, a branch overlooked and frequently forgotten—Unconscious influence."

"First, in the home. You can not walk on the streets of Rushville without influencing everyone who sees you. While calling, my attention was directed to a man walking on the street. The friends remarked: 'There goes one of the meanest men in the county; he has debauched more youth than any dozen men.' The friend became more and more indignant and finally said: 'Pardon me, but every time I see that man I wish that God would knock him in

TUMULTY DENIES ANY CONNECTION

With Congressman

By J. P. YODER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 8.—The names of James W. Gerard, United States ambassador to Berlin, was mentioned for the first time today before the house rules committee investigating the "leak" to Wall Street of advance information of the president's peace note while Presidential Secretary Tumulty was testifying.

Tumulty had made a comprehensive denial of reports that he was concerned in the "leak," supported by an authorized statement from President Wilson that the secretary knew nothing of the note. Tumulty was asked if he had ever visited a Washington stock broker. He replied yes and that he had introduced Gerard at the broker's office. Gerard, Tumulty said, arranged to buy some bonds.

Secretary of State Lansing was called and gave a history of the preparation and publication of the note.

Lansing said there were no signs that any employee of the department had divulged the information they had nor did he know of any "leak" in the newspapers.

Thomas W. Lawson was the next witness. He admitted that he himself had profited by the "leak." "There have been leaks" and thousands of persons have been robbed," said Lawson. "One of the commonest things in Wall Street where all these things center is a Washington 'leak' on things of such importance that they affect the prices of stocks."

Lawson and Representative Chipperfield indulged in a bitter verbal fight. Lawson held an attempt had been made to "infiltrate and bulldoze" him.

JAMES P. GOODRICH IS INAUGURATED

Ceremonies at State Capitol Today
Take up Most of the Time of the Legislature

GREAT CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 8.—James P. Goodrich was today inaugurated governor of Indiana. The new governor took the oath of office shortly before twelve o'clock in the presence of a great crowd in the corridor of the capitol building.

The new executive was escorted to the flower-banked speakers stand on the first floor of the capitol by Governor Ralston just before noon while the band played "On the Banks of the Wabash."

Oath of office was administered by Judge Moses B. Lairy, chief justice of the Indiana supreme court. The new executive delivered a brief inaugural address.

The simple ceremonies were soon over and were followed by a reception in the executive offices.

Inaugural ceremonies and Governor Goodrich's message took up most of the time of both houses of the Indiana legislature today. Organization work of the house was completed by announcement of committees and making of appointments. The senate heard Lieutenant Governor Bush's inaugural address.

Barnard Says Housewives Should
Learn to Choose Food Sup-

Egg at Thirty Cents a Dozen are not are used by many persons as a substitute for meat. They do furnish a food similar to meat but whenever eggs sell for thirty cents a dozen, they are not economical substitutes.

As a matter of fact eggs are no longer cheap food, even in the spring when they are most plentiful.

Only the rich and improvident can afford to pay more than twenty-five cents a dozen for eggs for food purposes. Of course a cultivated taste for soft boiled eggs which is satisfied with a single egg is cheaply breakfasted and at the same time sufficiently nourished if the buttered toast which accompanies the egg is of sufficient quantity.

The housewife leans heavily on certain cooking accessories. She pins her faith in one brand of flour.
She fries her doughnuts in one form of cooking fat or oil. She follows the same recipe day after day and year after year in making cakes and puddings. Any change in the formula, she fancies, would draw criticism on the output of her oven.
As a matter of fact it is not necessary to use high priced eggs in cooking. If the recipe demands eggs, use some other recipe and save money. That is the way to avoid worry over the advancing food prices.

When housewives learn to choose food supplies by balancing prices against food values, boycotts will be unnecessary. Let those who have money buy eggs in January.
The rest of us will be as well nourished and more cheaply fed on less expensive forms of fat and protein.
Cut eggs out of the grocery order.

Amusements

"The Almighty Dollar" is the title of the feature at the Princess tonight. Francis Nelson and E. K.
Lincoln are featured. It is said to be an extraordinary picture and shows how money while a great servant can be a dangerous master. Tomorrow Norma Talmadge and Tully Marshall will be seen in "The Devil's Needle."

The Gem offers the feature play,
"Saint, Devil and Woman" for the program tonight. It is said to be a story that will hold interest from beginning to end. Florence La Badie is featured. Fresh from her life at a convent school, the strange heroine of this powerful drama serves as plastic material for a Spaniard, who, through her father's death, has become executor of the estate and moulds her to his hypnotic will. Gradually the saint becomes a devil, and aided by her great wealth is a menace to humanity. Tomorrow Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo, and Jack Holt will be seen in "Trapped" the tenth episode of "Liberty."

"Just a Woman" the sensational new play by Eugene Walter which will be seen at the Shubert Murat Theatre, for a week's engagement, commencing Monday night January 8th is genuinely a big drama. It deals with a theme of universal application that has to do with the very essence of human happiness; its climatic episode is sensational in the highest degree, and the conclusion is big in the truest sense of touching the heart. The presentation under the management of the Messrs. Shubert is fittingly splendid. There are forty-odd persons engaged in this performance among them players of the best Broadway repute, and the scenic equipment is far and away the most elaborate and beautiful ever sent on tour with a drama. In addition to the impressive courtroom setting, there is a wonderful scene in the first act depicting in the most realistic way the great steel making region near Pittsburg, with the foundries in active operation. A handsome living room and an idyl-lically beautiful final scene showing the house on the hill which had been the Woman's goal throughout, are other scenic points of noteworthy value. In addition to the extraordinary first cost, then mere item of transportation for the additional cars of scenery will amount, for the tour to the coast, to many thousands of dollars. Very few of the greatest musical productions, playing at heavily increased rates, require so noteworthy a scenic equipment or such heavy expenditure for company salaries. The play has just finished its second season's engagement in New York and will come to Indianapolis absolutely unchanged in acting personnel or settings. The metropolitan critics regard "Just a Woman" as finer and greater drama than even Mr. Walter's previous successes, such as "The Easiest Way," and "Paid in Full."

Prominent in the large list of distinguished players are Mable Brownell, Ernest Anderson, Grace
Studdiford, Clifford Stork, Stuart
Fox, Wm. Randall, David Lindley,
Margaret McWade, Henry Quinn,
George Burton, John Ward, Marjorie Burt, Harry Hadfield.

grove & Mullin, Murat agents in

Dr. Grossman asserted our unconscious influence is exerted in business as well as in other walks of life. He gave many other apt illustrations to force the thought home.

One of David Belasco's biggest stage successes was called "The Case of Becky." Sometimes the heroine was good, then suddenly she would become a fiend. Probably the most famous story of dual personality is "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." One of the most widely read stories in English literature is "Trilby." In it, a beautiful girl struggles under the evil, hypnotic influence of a wicked man.

Fresh from her life at convent school, the strange heroine of this powerful drama serves as plastic material for a Spaniard, who, through her father's death, has become executor of the estate and moulds her to his hypnotic will. Gradually the saint becomes a devil, and aided by her great wealth is a menace to humanity. Then begins a conflict—a match of minds—between a young doctor, engaged in bettering the conditions in tenement districts owned by the girl, and the man, whose evil influence has changed her habits of thought. Who will win? This is the question you will ask breathlessly up to the last few moments.

"Saint, Devil and Woman" will hold the attention from beginning to end.

Wanted—Producers.

We have become so accustomed to the cry that the prevailing high prices of living are the result of our increased exports of food stuffs that it comes as somewhat of a shock to learn from official figures that during the past year our exports of food supplies were in reality something like $100,000,000 less than the previous year. And it is stated on the same authority that never before has the visible supply been so low.

The food speculators have been yelling that Europe was making such a tremendous demand for our food supplies that the enormous shipments in themselves were the cause of sky high prices. That, too, appears to be a mixture of financial wind and hot air.

There are two distinct causes for the prevailing high prices. We lack producers, and we are cursed with a set of food speculators who would starve a baby to death for a penny.

Our production is not keeping pace with the demand, because our farmers are leaving their acres and turning their faces to the allurements of the town and city. And there is none to take their places on the farms. As Mr. Cleveland so tersely put it, "this is a condition and not a theory."

Food speculators know this, and are buying and hoarding the supply and doing it out in dribbles at their own prices.

When we get rid of some of the middlemen, and jail the speculating price boosters, and keep the men on the farms and put more of them there, then we will have ample supplies at reasonable prices, and not until then.

New Ideas Introduced.

Among the new ideas in the conduct of legislative business that have been introduced by Republicans is that of having all bills engrossed on typewriters rather than by long hand as has long been the bungle-some custom. This also applies to the preparation of the journal. Another new idea is found in the introduction of the process of photographing bills for the use of members. In times past, there have been times when controversies have arisen regarding the treatment of bills after they have been introduced in the Legislature. Under the old system it would not have been

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

difficult for an unscrupulous employee, at the instance of an unscrupulous lobbyist to change the location of a comma or mark out a word, thereby rendering void the work of the legislature when the members were not looking. This sort of work will be impossible when each bill goes before the lens of a camera.

The Republican idea seems to be to make it plain to the people of Indiana during the next sixty days that they intend to "make good" on every promise made the people of Indiana during campaign days.

TO TREBLE RADIUM SUPPLY

Colorado Ore Will do Work Says an Expert.

(By United Press.)

Denver, Jan. 8.—The ores of Southwestern Colorado will double or treble the world's supply of radium, according to a statement issued today by the expert at the State School of Mines at Golden.

The report declares that the ore accessible in Southern Colorado and in the La Sal mountains in Utah contains nearly 200 grains of radium, or nearly three times the world's present supply.

The Carnotite field of Utah and Colorado already have produced about one half the world's supply of radium.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Everyone has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "brickdust."

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat.

At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say a pint morning and night, and take Anuric three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take it occasionally and continue for three or four weeks and in that way avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system.

Make yourself healthy and strong by open-air exercise and diet. Then clean the liver by occasionally stimulating its action with a pleasant laxative composed of the May-apple, dried juice of aloes, and root of jalap. Style
and

Why is it that one will sometimes see a shoe of beautiful design in the window which, when tried on looks shabby and unkept? A great many times it is because the shoe is made only for style and eye attraction, with no thought given to its fit. After style, fit is the all important feature.

WINSHIP & DENNING'S STYLE SHOES OF QUALITY

are beautiful to behold, not only in the window, but on the feet. Their designers know that perfect fit is absolutely essential to bring out their true style worth. Style shows of quality fit the beautiful curves of the feet smoothly. Consequently they look trim, and lend harmonious setting to stylish costumes, as well.

Wear style shoes of quality, and discover why they are preferred by the fashionable.

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

DECEMBER GETS
NEAR THE RECORD

Low Mark Within Five Degrees of Low Monthly Temperature for 35 Years in County.

NEAR THE HIGH RECORD TOO

Although December did not establish any new records for the period of thirty-five years which Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer, has kept account of the vagaries of the weather, the mercury went dangerously near the low mark for the period. It also was within five degrees of the high temperature for December in 35 years.

On December 15, 1916, the government thermometer registered a temperature of 12 degrees below zero and during December both in 1882 and 1884 the mercury dropped to 17 below. The maximum temperature for last month was 60 above, but in December, 1914 a high mark for the month of 65 above was set. The greatest daily range last month was 37 degrees, whereas the normal range of a December day for the last 35 years is 32.9 degrees.

The total snowfall last month was 13.1 inches and the total rainfall was 3.3 inches, which is about normal for December. The greatest rainfall in any 24 hours was a half inch. Rain fell on sixteen days, 12 days were clear, 7 days were partly cloudy and 12 were wholly cloudy.

INTEREST CENTERS

Allies and Central Powers Hold Conferences, Causing Belief Battle Will Continue.

FORMER MEETING AT ROME

(By United Press.)

London, Jan. 8.—Conferences held by the allies and the central powers indicate that interest now centers on war—not peace. The belief prevails here that the recent peace efforts are to be answered by the force of arms.

The allies conference was at Rome. Premier Lloyd George and other high officials represented England; Premier Briand represented France and Russia sent a member of its general staff. The conference was taken here to forecast a more vigorous prosecution of the war.

The Teutonic conference was reported to have been held at the field headquarters of the kaiser. It was believed here that the Central Powers conference was to discuss what had happened to the German peace plans.

KAISER MAKES STATEMENT

(By United Press.)

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The discussion in congress at Washington on America's international relations following the recent peace notes has resulted in the belief that the United States and the allies are gradually drifting together rather than that the United States and neutrals are co-operating for peace.

This belief has been aroused by the discussion of a change in America's international and political policy which would make foreign alliances possible. The kaiser has declared in a statement that the Entente reply may be considered a refusal of Germany's proffer of peace.

CONTROLLED BY FARMERS

North Dakota's Legislature Gets Down to Business Today.

Bismark, N. D., Jan. 8.—North Dakota's farmer-legislature got down to business this week without pomp or ceremony.

It was a legislative session entirely dominated by a farmers political organization that had its birth in the idea of co-operative marketing of grain without speculation.

From the Equity Co-operative exchange, standing solely for the open unspeculative food market, grew the Farmers Non-Partisan league of North Dakota. This organization stood for state control of all elevators, non speculative markets, and public ownership of public utilities. In two elections it swept into the legislature sufficient members to control the law making body.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

What the Women's Clubs Are Doing

Now that the holiday recess is over, the clubs of the state are starting in with renewed vigor on the programs for the year 1917. The last meeting of the Magazine Club of Columbus was given over to music. Responses to the roll call were given by naming composers; a review of the Musician's Magazine was given and "Indian Music" discussed.

Mrs. Demarchus Brown lectured on "Zola" before the last meeting of the Carey club of Connersville. A very up-to-date program was carried out by the Culture Club of Newcastle this week. The subjects discussed were "Woman's Work and Influence," "What Women are Doing," and "History of the Woman's Movement." Another very practical program was given at the meeting of the Progressive Literary Club of Richmond at their last meeting. Subjects for papers were "Public Utilities," "How a Bill Becomes a Law in Indiana," and "Relation of the Home to Public Health."

At the last meeting of the Mother's Circle of Greensburg "The Building of the Girl" was discussed. The subject for the next meeting is to be "The Building of the Boy"

Household Hints

Do you still mix flour and shortening for pie crust or biscuits in the primitive, old-fashioned way? I mean, by rubbing the ingredients in your hands and having the unpleasant task of washing them afterward, besides wasting the flour and lard. You can buy a regular pastry fork to relieve you. It has four flat tines, sharpened at the lower edge, and mounted in a short metal handle. The cook flours the fork, then cuts the hard shortening into the flour, which separates the shortening into little particles, each coated with the flour. The same fork can be used to mix the dough, as the milk is added, and the hands need not touch the pastry until it is ready to be rolled out.

Place thick blotting paper in a strong solution of oxalic acid. When the paper has absorbed all it can hold, remove and dry. Keep blotter in desk. Use it to take up an unfortunate blot while the ink is wet, and no stain will show.

It is "as cheap to sit as to stand," should be observed in the kitchen of all places. A revolving stool, or any kind of high chair or seat, will prove a boon to the kitchen worker. It is no longer regarded as a sign of laziness to sit while you work; it shows wisdom. Have tables and shelves arranged to suit your own height. Stooping and bending tire the body, and spoil the figure.

I noticed my hostess making gravy with but a "thimbleful" of milk with the water, yet it was delicious and had a pleasing flavor wholly unknown to my gravies. "Just a suspicion of celery salt and a wee pinch of sugar, in addition to the usual salt and pepper, will transform the most plebeian gravy into a savory dish," she confessed.

In cold weather fill a small bag with powdered pumice stone; while perfectly dry rub it over your windows. This polishes lamp chimneys also.

Try using sausages instead of the usual slices of pork. The beans will absorb all of the fat and leave the sausages dry and delicious.

Finding that baby caught cold in his pen from the furnace draft I put a curtain of heavy muslin around it, pinning it at the top and tucking it under the floor of the pen.

Wet your flour with warm water instead of cold when mixing thickening for gravies, pastes, etc., and you will find the lumps will disappear like magic.

When removing the baked potato from the oven do not forget to burst the skin, else the potato will become slightly burst the skin and then bake soggy. If you boil it before baking,

With a small rake clear out the furnace ash pit. You will then have the charred pieces of unburnt coal or coke for fire use; and your coal bill will be very much reduced.

Children love N.B.C. GRAHAM CRACKERS because they taste so good—slightly sweetened to satisfy youngsters' palates. Grown-ups like them because they not only taste good but are nourishing as well. Sold by grocers everywhere.

JINNETT PUT ON 15 COMMITTEES

Rush County Representative is Appointed Chairman of Fees and Salaries Body

OTHER ASSIGNMENTS GOOD

In the list of committee appointments announced today by Speaker Eschbach shows that Representative Jinnett of this county received appointment to a place of fifteen committees. He failed to get the chairmanship of the committee on public morals, but received places on several important committees.

Representative Jinnett was made chairman of one committee, that of fees and salaries. He was made a member of the following committees: labor, state medicine, reformatory institutions, cities and towns, congressional apportionment, telephone and telegraph, public libraries, judiciary, education, affairs of Indiana State Prison, claims, fees and salaries, railroads, county and township business.

WOMEN WILL RULE THIS OREGON TOWN

From the Mayor on Down Fair Sex to Have Charge of Government at Umatilla.

MAN SUCCEEDED BY HIS WIFE

(By United Press.) Umatilla, Ore., Jan. 8.—Umatilla's city government passed this week into the hands of a woman administration. From Mrs. Laura Starcher, mayor, down to the police department all officials are of the gentler sex except two lonely males who must serve as "hold-overs" in the council.

E. E. Starcher, railroad telegrapher, handed over the robes of office to his wife. He vacated the little room where he has directed town's destinies for many months, and the madam took the helm. One of Mrs. Starcher's first acts will be to name the woman police force.

"A woman can do the work," said Mayoress Starcher, "better than any man." She added that if any obstreperous lawbreakers invaded Umatilla during the female regime a man or something would be designated to handle the situation, under orders from the boss.

On taking office Mrs. Starcher promised the city a business administration, and said she would effect improvements her husband's regime failed to attempt.

Speaking of Poise.
Poise is sometimes called self-confidence. The two go hand in hand at any rate, and without self-confidence one's poise will be lacking.

When I was first asked to visit the motion picture theatres and speak to my friends the idea was something of a nightmare to me. Never having spoken a word on the stage in my life, every thought seemed to leave me when I opened my mouth to speak publicly. No matter how carefully I had prepared my chat, I managed to forget every single word that was in it. That was—when I first attempted personal appearances at motion picture theatres.

Gradually, however, I became more at ease, and at present it is every bit as easy for me to speak from the stage as it is for me to talk informally to my particular friends.

Poise is a quality which both you and I desire. We may cultivate it if we go about the matter in the right way. A clever hostess or even a clever guest must have poise.

The first step towards poise is control over the feelings. Never does a well poised person show dislike or contempt for anything. If one has a temper one overcomes it or at least controls it.

Besides being at ease themselves, well-poised persons have the indescribable faculty of placing those about them at ease as well. Haven't you ever heard a person say, "Oh, she is a wonderful hostess—all enjoy themselves at her home. Somehow she puts you at your ease without even seeming to." The secret of this balm for bashful guests is the graciousness that comes in a large bottle marked "Poise."

Everyone of us wish our guests to enjoy themselves at our house parties and other social affairs. In order to have this so we must attain poise. Good-luck to you, everyone, in your quest. For you are going to seek it, I know.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

YOUNG SPANISH ARTIST ARRIVES

Coming of Ortiz Echague Causes Ripple of Excitement in New York Society.

HONORED BY KING ALPHONSO

Paintings Are Pronounced as Most Brilliant Example of Modern Spanish School.

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 8.—Quite a ripple of excitement is running across the surface of Gotham society today over the arrival of the youthful and handsome Spanish painter, Ortiz Echague. (Pronounced Ay-chaw-gway.) Senor Echague is an honor guest of the Metropolitan museum of art and quite the vogue in the society colonies of the Eastern United States, a number of whose most charming feminine members he has been commissioned to paint.

Perhaps mere interest than the display of any single picture ever has caused in Buenos Aires is being shown by art critics in the portrait, now on exhibition, of Mrs. Rosa Monditegui, one of the leading figures in Argentine society, by Echague.

Echague, who is among the best-known of the younger Spanish generation of artists, began his real career in Madrid in 1908, following his return from the Spanish Academy of Art in Rome, where, as the holder of a scholarship awarded by the Madrid government, he spent five years. During 1908, 1909 and 1910 he obtained high awards in numerous national and international contests and had, as sitters, many of the leading women of the Spanish nobility.

Then following a tour of Europe, in which the young artist won especial successes in Italy and Holland, and later in Paris, the most conspicuous mark of approval which, up to that time, he had received, was bestowed upon him in 1913, when he was summoned to the royal palace in Madrid to paint a portrait of King Alfonso, which his majesty presented to Czar Nicholas.

Echague was in Buenos Aires in November, when he left for New York to execute several important commissions in the United States.

His paintings are pronounced by critics as among the most brilliant and original examples of the modern Spanish school.

should be elected it would be a disgrace to the city I am sure.

"Men, stand together above all things. The forces of evil are always united and that is the reason they have been getting the best of us in the past. It is amusing now to have the politicians come around and say that they are going to stand with the church crowd now because the saloon crowd is tricky and they never know where they are. The saloon crowd is always organized and that's the point. If you are organized, too, you can beat them at their own game."

Dr. Pearson said it was the duty of every church man to stand against the forces of evil. Organized, the church can accomplish anything, he asserted.

"If a city like yours is wet," he continued, "the church men should make it dry and if a city like yours is dry, the church men should see to it that it does not become wet."

"It is not only the intention of God that the church should be militant, but that it should be a unit. There are 186 different faiths today. Up until 25 years ago churches sprang up fast, but the last quarter of a century we have come to realize that Christ's idea of the church is unity. Religion is no longer a thing of opinion but of fellowship."

He recalled that many churches springing from the same denomination were considering uniting, and at the same time the denominations are getting closer together. Dr. Pearson said that when he went to Indianapolis as secretary, he told the church organization that if the churches could learn to work together in evangelism, they could learn to work together in other things. He asserted evangelism to be the hotbed in which united action grows. Dr. Pearson said the simultaneous evangelistic campaigns were started three years ago and that the first year 3,500 members were added; the second year, 7,000; the third year over 8,000, and this year the goal is 10,000. He then showed how the churches had become a factor in civic betterment because they had learned the value of joining their forces in evangelistic campaigns.

While discussing the value of union, he urged upon the Christian men the necessity of urging upon their legislators active support of the state-wide prohibition bill which will come before the legislature and was roundly applauded.

In closing he pleaded for personal evangelism as Jesus' idea of winning souls for Christ.

GRAND JURY GOES IN SESSION AGAIN

Many Witnesses Heard This Morning and More Are Ready to Testify This Afternoon

MORE CHARGES EXPECTED

The grand jury resumed operations this morning after a vacation of two weeks. A large number of witnesses were on hand this morning and the afternoon found another batch waiting to testify.

Most of the witnesses today were from this city. It would not be surprising to see the grand jury return another large number of indictments. Before adjourning for the holidays the grand jury returned a total of 45 indictments. All but two of the men indicted have been arrested.

It is understood that the grand jury "clean-up" will take in the entire county. Witnesses are to be recalled from Arlington as conditions there are said to still be bad despite the fact that a number of people were indicted and a pool room supposed to have been cleaned up.

TEST CASE WILL BE TRIED AGAIN

Suit to Collect Money Subscribed
for Stock in Creamery Co.,
Will Settle Ten Others

JURY DISAGREED BEFORE

Ben Riley Pleads Guilty to Gaming
and is Fined $5 and Costs—
Many Cases Settled

The case of the Excelsior Creamery company against T. E. McAllister will be tried tomorrow in circuit court. The case is for the collection of stock in the old creamery and ten other similar cases depend on the result. This suit was tried once before, the jury failing to reach a verdict.

To fill vacancies on the jury Judge Sparks ordered the names of six men drawn. The jury commissioners drew the names of Jesse Peters, Union township; Joseph G. McCoy, Posey; George H. Bell, Center; James O. Durham, Washington; R. P. Havens, Rushville and Hugh Abernethy, Rushville, as the men to serve as the extra jurors.

Benjamin Riley appeared in court this morning to answer to the charge of gaming. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5 and costs. He was indicted by the grand jury, in the batch of 45 indictments. This leaves but two indictments to be accounted for.

The motion for a change of venue in the suit of Elma Ponder against John G. Gartin was granted, the court sending the case to the Fayette circuit court and giving five days to perfect the change.

By agreement Sanford Hill was allowed the sum of $60 on his claim against the estate of the late James A. Hill. Sanford Hill asked for the sum of $200. The suit was directed against Owen S. Hill, the administrator of the estate.

Mrs. Bertha Blount was given a judgment for $100 against John D. Stewart. The suit was on an account the demand being $125.

Edward Schonebaum, receiver of the Marmet Coal Company, was given a judgment against William Emsweller for $91.38. The suit was dismissed as to Cleo Emsweller and judgment taken against William Emsweller.

The suit of Henry G. Hackman against John Cupp, on an account, was dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

TRAIN ROBBER TO BE BROUGHT HERE

Earl W. Fierce, Implicated With
John O. Storey in Hold-up in
Rushville, is Expected

WILL FACE LARCENY CHARGE

Pennsylvania railway detectives were expected here today from Bloomington, Ill., with Earl W. Fierce, who is alleged to have been implicated with John O. Storey in the robbery of the crew of a Big Four train here several months ago.

Storey has been sentenced to the Joliet prison for burglary and Fierce will face a grand larceny charge here. It will be recalled that the hold-up of the train crew was one of the most daring ever pulled off here. Storey was caught in Bloomington and Fierce in Missouri. Fierce testified at the trial of Storey.

It is understood that he admits his part in the crime here and will be taken before the grand jury upon his arrival. The officers reached Columbus with him last night and were expected here today.

Economy And Efficiency Urged By New Governor

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 8.—Economy and efficiency in handling of state affairs by the abolishment of numerous offices and through the centralization of control of state work was the keynote of Gov. James P. Goodrich's message to the seventieth general assembly delivered today shortly after the inauguration of the chief executive.

Delivering one of the most progressive messages ever heard in Indiana legislative halls, the governor fairly took the legislators off their feet with his recommendations.

He asked that a constitutional convention be called to meet in January, 1918 to draft a new basic law for the state.

He urged the revision of the state taxation laws by the levying of an excise tax on public service, and other foreign and domestic corporations and the increasing of the tax levied on insurance companies; by the enactment of an amendment to the constitution to allow the legislature to classify property for taxation purposes.

Slashing right and left the governor recommended that the following state departments be abolished:

Oil department consisting of fifty-nine deputies; chief oil inspector and clerical force and instead that the work be done by the food and drug commissioner's department.

State statistician, and instead the distribution of his work among the various commissions and department heads now in existence.

State fish and game commission; state board of forestry; state geologist; state entomologist and instead the establishment of a commission of four to be known as the state conservation commission, the members of which shall serve without pay; this commission would also have charge of the state park system.

Abolishment of the office of attorney general as an elective office; provision for his appointment by the governor and that deputies under him serve as legal advisors of the various commissions and boards instead of counsels appointed by these boards as at present and paid out of state funds.

The governor even advocated the abolishment of the office of legal clerk to the governor, saying that this work could and should be done by the attorney general.

The governor recommended the reduction of the quartermaster general's salary by $1,000 a year as the federal government now pays him that amount. Other important recommendations are:

Creation of a state highway commission.

Establishment of a department of insurance and banking.

Regulation of fire insurance rates by the state.

Provision for the adoption of the commission form of government by cities.

Appropriation of money for an efficiency survey for all state offices in order to eliminate duplication, waste and leakage.

A constitutional amendment to provide for the handling of state finances by the budget system; a constitutional amendment prohibiting the increase of any official's salary during his term of office; a constitutional amendment making the office of state superintendent of public instruction appointive instead of elective.

Dr. M. C. Pearson of Indianapolis
Churches Asserts Can Win by
Getting Together

ADDRESSES MEN'S MEETING

Secretary Details Accomplishments
of Indianapolis Federation in
Three Years

Counseling the united action of church people as a means of routing the forces of evil and that the church above all things be militant, in both a constructive and destructive way, Dr. Morton C. Pearson, secretary of the Indianapolis Church Federation, addressed a men's meeting at the Main Street Christian church Sunday afternoon.

The union meeting was the first of a series of Sunday afternoon gatherings to be held during the simultaneous evangelistic campaign of the Protestant churches of the city which was started last week with union meeting in observance of the week of prayer. Dr. Pearson praised this sort of united effort on the part of the churches and said that a similar plan of campaign had been mapped out by the Indianapolis Church Federation, beginning with the observance of the week of prayer which starts next week.

Summing up the points he made during his address, Dr. Pearson said the church should be permanent and invincible, militant in both a constructive and destructive way, should be a unit and must have a passion of evangelism.

Dr. Pearson devoted much of his talk to relating what had been accomplished by the Indianapolis Church Federation because the Protestant churches were united and worked with a common aim. He said there are 132 churches representing 65,000 men and women in the federation and that they have become an immense force for good in the city.

Dr. Pearson recalled that the church federation took a stand against commercialized vice in Indianapolis and that by means of a law passed two years ago, 24 centers of organized vice had been eradicated and more than a hundred immoral houses had been forced out.

"Two years ago we took a hand in politics and cleaned out the court house," he continued. "We put in the best set of Christian men that were ever in the court house. We cleaned out the ring and when the smoke had cleared there was just one of the old organization left and he was a hold-over or he would not have been there."

"In the last election the forces aligned themselves in the same way. The prosecutor and sheriff, the officials who had to do with the enforcement of the laws, we were interested in, were up for re-election and they both had made splendid records. Therefore, we came out in the open and fought for the election of these men. We worked through the press and in every other way with the result that these officials for whom we worked received a plurality of over 4,000 votes in the county, more than the candidate for president on their ticket."

"We represent 65,000 men and women and we will get what we want in this city election or I miss my guess. We can't always get what we want from the present city administration, but we will clean out the city hall at this coming election."

"There is already a candidate for the nomination for mayor, a splendid young man, Charles Jewett, son of a Methodist minister, a clean-cut young fellow and a Harvard graduate. We all sincerely hope that he will be elected and that we will see the city of Indianapolis entirely free of low-down entities. If he is elected, we will have a clean-up."

GANTNER WINS A PLACE

Democrat Gets Old Job as Engraving Clerk in State Senate

John Gantner of this city has landed an appointment in the state senate as an engraving clerk, a position he has held for several sessions of the legislature. Gantner, who is a democrat, obtained his appointment through the influence of Walter Chambers, state senator from Henry county. Chambers was also district chairman during the last campaign. Gantner went to Indianapolis this morning to take up his duties.

INCREASE IN CROWDS SEEN

"Go to Church Sunday" Marked by Larger Attendance and Opening
of Revivals

U. P. MEETING STARTS TONIGHT

Revivals Also Begin at St. Paul's M.
E. and First Presbyterian Churches

"Go To Church Sunday," which was observed here yesterday, was marked by increased attendance at all of the churches and the beginning of two protracted meetings. The third revival, that the United Presbyterian church, will start tonight.

Special sermons were preached at all of the churches and a men's meeting was held in the afternoon. The Rev. W. M. Whitsitt started a revival at St. Paul's M. E. church with two sermons yesterday. He is assisted by Harry Ross, singing evangelist, and his wife. The Rev. Frank W. Grossman of Franklin will conduct the revival at the First Presbyterian. He preached twice Sunday. The Rev. David D. Dodds of Xenia, O., came today and will preach for the first time at the United Presbyterian church tonight.

No revival will be held at the First Baptist church until after the new church home is dedicated. No special meetings will be held at the Main Street Christian church just now, but special stress was laid on Sunday's meetings. "Vision Sunday" was observed at Sunday school and a campaign mapped out for the year. John A. Tinsworth, adult department superintendent, made a short talk in which he visualized the plans to be followed by the school.

Dr. Grossman spoke of "Unconscious Influence" at the First Presbyterian church last night, taking for his text, John 20:8, "Then went in also that other disciple who came first unto the tomb and he saw and believed."

"Influence is a law of the universe," said Dr. Grossman. "Man influences man, voter the politician, teacher the pupil, children their parents and in some homes even parents influence their children."

"Christ's influence is Christianity's power, Christianity in turn influences the world. We shall confine our thoughts to only one branch of this great thought, a branch overlooked and frequently forgotten—Unconscious influence."

"First, in the home. You can not walk on the streets of Rushville without influencing everyone who sees you. While calling my attention was directed to a man walking on the street. The friends remarked: 'There goes one of the meanest men in the county; he has debauched more youth than any dozen men. The friend became more and more indignant and finally said: 'Pardon me, but every time I see that man I wish that God would knock him in the head.'"

By J. P. YODER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 8.—The names of James W. Gerard, United States ambassador to Berlin, was mentioned for the first time today before the house rules committee investigating the "leak" to Wall Street of advance information of the president's peace note while Presidential Secretary Tumulty was testifying.

Tumulty had made a comprehensive denial of reports that he was concerned in the "leak," supported by an authorized statement from President Wilson that the secretary knew nothing of the note. Tumulty was asked if he had ever visited a Washington stock broker. He replied yes and that he had introduced Gerard at the broker's office. Gerard, Tumulty said, arranged to buy some bonds.

Secretary of State Lansing was called and gave a history of the preparation and publication of the note.

Lansing said there were no signs that any employee of the department had divulged the information they had nor did he know of any "leak" in the newspapers.

Thomas W. Lawson was the next witness. He admitted that he himself had profited by the "leak." "There have been leaks and thousands of persons have been robbed," said Lawson. "One of the commonest things in Wall Street where all these things center is a Washington 'leak' on things of such importance that they affect the prices of stocks."

Lawson and Representative Chipperfield indulged in a bitter verbal fight. Lawson held an attempt had been made to "infiltrate and bulldoze" him.

JAMES P. GOODRICH IS INAUGURATED

Ceremonies at State Capitol Today
Take up Most of the Time of
the Legislature

GREAT CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 8.—James P. Goodrich was today inaugurated governor of Indiana. The new governor took the oath of office shortly before twelve o'clock in the presence of a great crowd in the corridor of the capital building.

The new executive was escorted to the flower-banked speakers stand on the first floor of the capitol by Governor Ralston just before noon while the band played "On the Banks of the Wabash."

Oath of office was administered by Judge Moses B. Lairy, chief justice of the Indiana supreme court. The new executive delivered a brief inaugural address.

The simple ceremonies were soon over and were followed by a reception in the executive offices.

Inaugural ceremonies and Governor Goodrich's message took up most of the time of both houses of the Indiana legislature today. Organization work of the house was completed by announcement of committees and making of appointments. The senate heard Lieutenant Governor Bush's inaugural address.

Farming Home Making, Are
Special Ones for Young People

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 8.—Indiana's farmers, the bone and sinew of the Hoosier commonwealth, are assembling at Purdue University today for the great annual education assembly, the Farmers' Short Course. Men, women, boys and girls are here, practically every agricultural community of the state being represented. Corn and wheat growers, dairymen, livestock breeders, fruit growers, poultrymen, have traveled far from their farms to study and master the problem of growing larger and better crops, and with them are their wives, sons and daughters. Each has his or her separate line of work.

"This is the fifteenth annual Short Course and in all probability this year's enrollment will even exceed the 1916 attendance which was close to 2,000. The program is the most elaborate yet offered, including numerous new features, presenting world famous lecturers and laying particular stress upon practical demonstrations of farm methods, and upon the home and social side of the rural life problem. The woman's department has an especially attractive program dealing with all phases of home-making, and for the young people there is an abundance of valuable work. The University authorities are making no effort to

ARE WIDELY PRAISED FOR IT

Life Motor Will be Kept at Sexton's
Sanatorium for General Use
of the Public

Before leaving here J. N. Harkins of the Respiratory Apparatus company of Chicago sold to three Rushville physicians and the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company a Life Motor for the use of the public at large in cases of asphyxiation from electric shock, drowning, gas poisoning and in still born baby cases.

The three physicians—Dr. Lowell M. Green, Dr. J. C. Sexton and Dr. Frank H. Green, bear half of the expense of the purchase and the traction company the other half. The Life Motor will be kept at the Sexton sanatorium in readiness for use at any time by anyone and the sanatorium should be notified in case of an accident in which the instrument could be used.

The physicians and the traction company were being widely praised today when it became known they had made the purchase, for this expression of civic patriotism in guarding against unnecessary loss of life. Compliments regarding their generosity will be made universally throughout the city and county for this step which may save many people from death whenever the emergency arises. The Life Motor is a perfect mechanical device which stands between death and a human being who is asphyxiated. It is a perfect mechanical device which stands between death and a human being who is asphyxiated. It is a perfect mechanical device which stands between death and a human being who is asphyxiated.

Barnard Says Housewives Should
Learn to Choose Food Supplies by Food Value.

SHOULD CHANGE RECIPES

Egg at Thirty Cents a Dozen are not Cheaper Than Meat, According to Him.

BY DR. H. E. BARNARD.
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 8.—Eggs
Pure Food and Drug Commissioner

are used by many persons as a substitute for meat. They do furnish a food similar to meat but whenever eggs sell for thirty cents a dozen, they are not economical substitutes. As a matter of fact eggs are no longer cheap food, even in the spring when they are most plentiful.

Only the rich and improvident can afford to pay more than twenty-five cents a dozen for eggs for food purposes. Of course a cultivated taste for soft boiled eggs which is satisfied with a single egg is cheaply breakfasted and at the same time sufficiently nourished if the buttered toast which accompanies the egg is of sufficient quantity.

The housewife leans heavily on certain cooking accessories. She pins her faith in one brand of flour. She fries her doughnuts in one form of cooking fat or oil. She follows the same recipe day after day and year after year in making cakes and puddings. Any change in the formula, she fancies, would draw criticism on the output of her oven. As a matter of fact it is not necessary to use high priced eggs in cooking. If the recipe demands eggs, use some other recipe and save money. That is the way to avoid worry over the advancing food prices.

When housewives learn to choose food supplies by balancing prices against food values, boycotts will be unnecessary. Let those who have money buy eggs in January. The rest of us will be as well nourished and more cheaply fed on less expensive forms of fat and protein. Cut eggs out of the grocery order.

Amusements

"The Almighty Dollar" is the title of the feature at the Princess tonight. Francis Nelson and E. K. Lincoln are featured. It is said to be an extraordinary picture and shows how money while a great servant can be a dangerous master. Tomorrow Norma Talmadge and Tully Marshall will be seen in "The Devil's Needle."

The Gem offers the feature play, "Saint, Devil and Woman" for the program tonight. It is said to be a story that will hold interest from beginning to end. Florence La Badie is featured. Fresh from her life at a convent school, the strange heroine of this powerful drama serves as plastic material for a Spaniard, who, through her father's death, has become executor of the estate and moulds her to his hypnotic will. Gradually the saint becomes a devil, and aided by her great wealth is a menace to humanity. Tomorrow Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo, and Jack Holt will be seen in "Trapped" the tenth episode of "Liberty."

"Just a Woman" the sensational new play by Eugene Walter which will be seen at the Shubert Murat Theatre, for a week's engagement, commencing Monday night January 8th is genuinely a big drama. It deals with a theme of universal application that has to do with the very essence of human happiness; its climatic episode is sensational in the highest degree, and the conclusion is big in the truest sense of touching the heart. The presentation under the management of the Messrs. Shubert is fittingly splendid. There are forty-odd persons engaged in this performance among them players of the best Broadway repute, and the scenic equipment is far and away the most elaborate and beautiful ever sent on tour with a drama. In addition to the impressive courtroom setting, there is a wonderful scene in the first act depicting in the most realistic way the great steel making region near Pittsburg, with the foundries in active operation. A handsome living room and an idyllically beautiful final scene showing the house on the hill which had been the Woman's goal throughout, are other scenic points of noteworthy value. In addition to the extraordinary first cost, then mere item of transportation for the additional cars of scenery will amount, for the tour to the coast, to many thousands of dollars. Very few of the greatest musical productions, playing at heavily increased rates, require so noteworthy a scenic equipment on such heavy expenditure for company salaries. The play has just finished its second season's engagement in New York and will come to Indianapolis absolutely unchanged in acting personnel or settings. The metropolitan critics regard "Just a Woman" as finer and greater drama than even Mr. Walter's previous successes, such as "The Easiest Way," and "Paid in Full."

Prominent in the large list of distinguished players are Mable Brownell, Ernest Anderson, Grace Studdiford, Clifford Stork, Stuart Fox, Wm. Randall, David Lindley, Margaret McWade, Henry Quinn, George Burton, John Ward, Marjorie Bow, Harry Hadfield.

Tickets can be had from Hargrove & Mullin, Murat agents in this city.

One of David Belasco's biggest stage successes was called "The Case of Becky." Sometimes the heroine was good, then suddenly she would become a fiend. Probably the most famous story of dual personality is "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." One of the most widely read stories in English literature is "Tribby." In it, a beautiful girl struggles under the evil, hypnotic influence of a wicked man.

Fresh from her life at convent school, the strange heroine of this powerful drama serves as plastic material for a Spaniard, who, through her father's death, has become executor of the estate and moulds her to his hypnotic will. Gradually the saint becomes a devil, and aided by her great wealth is a menace to humanity. Then begins a conflict—a match of minds—between a young doctor, engaged in bettering the conditions in tenement districts owned by the girl, and the man, whose evil influence has changed her habits of thought. Who will win? This is the question you will ask breathlessly up to the last few moments. "Saint, Devil and Woman" will hold the attention from beginning to end.

Wanted—Producers.

We have become so accustomed to the cry that the prevailing high prices of living are the result of our increased exports of food stuffs that it comes as somewhat of a shock to learn from official figures that during the past year our exports of food supplies were in reality something like $100,000,000 less than the previous year. And it is stated on the same authority that never before has the visible supply been so low.

The food speculators have been yelling that Europe was making such a tremendous demand for our food supplies that the enormous shipments in themselves were the cause of sky high prices. That, too, appears to be a mixture of financial wind and hot air.

There are two distinct causes for the prevailing high prices. We lack producers, and we are cursed with a set of food speculators who would starve a baby to death for a penny.

Our production is not keeping pace with the demand, because our farmers are leaving their acres and turning their faces to the allurements of the town and city. And there is none to take their places on the farms. As Mr. Cleveland so tersely put it, "this is a condition and not a theory."

Food speculators know this, and are buying and hoarding the supply and doing it out in dribbles at their own prices.

When we get rid of some of the middlemen, and jail the speculating price boosters, and keep the men on the farms and put more of them there, then we will have ample supplies at reasonable prices, and not until then.

New Ideas Introduced.

Among the new ideas in the conduct of legislative business that have been introduced by Republicans is that of having all bills engrossed on typewriters rather than by long hand as has long been the bungle-some custom. This also applies to the preparation of the journal. Another new idea is found in the introduction of the process of photographing bills for the use of members. In times past, there have been times when controversies have arisen regarding the treatment of bills after they have been introduced in the Legislature. Under the old system it would not have been

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). difficult for an unscrupulous employee, at the instance of an unscrupulous lobbyist to change the location of a comma or mark out a word, thereby rendering void the work of the legislature when the members were not looking. This sort of work will be impossible when each bill goes before the lens of a camera.

The Republican idea seems to be to make it plain to the people of Indiana during the next sixty days that they intend to "make good" on every promise made the people of Indiana during campaign days.

TO TREBLE RADIUM SUPPLY

Colorado Ore Will do Work Says an Expert.

(By United Press.)

Denver, Jan. 8.—The ores of Southwestern Colorado will double or treble the world's supply of radium, according to a statement issued today by the expert at the State School of Mines at Golden.

The report declares that the ore accessible in Southern Colorado and in the La-Sal mountains in Utah contains nearly 200 grains of radium, or nearly three times the world's present supply.

The Carnotite field of Utah and Colorado already have produced about one-half the world's supply of radium.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Everyone has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "brickdust."

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat.

At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say a pint morning and night, and take Anuric three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take it occasionally and continue for three or four weeks and in that way avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system.

Style
and
FIT

Why is it that one will sometimes see a shoe of beautiful design in the window which, when tried on looks shabby and unkept? A great many times it is because the shoe is made only for style and eye attraction, with no thought given to its fit. After style, fit is the all important feature.

WINSHIP & DENNING'S STYLE SHOES OF QUALITY

are beautiful to behold, not only in the window, but on the feet. Their designers know that perfect fit is absolutely essential to bring out their true style worth. Style shows of quality fit the beautiful curves of the feet smoothly. Consequently they look trim, and lend harmonious setting to stylish costumes, as well.

Wear style shoes of quality, and discover why they are preferred by the fashionable.

THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter: wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

NEAR THE RECORD

Low Mark Within Five Degrees of Low Monthly Temperature for 35 Years in County.

NEAR THE HIGH RECORD TOO

Although December did not establish any new records for the period of thirty-five years which Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer, has kept account of the vagaries of the weather, the mercury went dangerously near the low mark for the period. It also was within five degrees of the high temperature for December in 35 years.

On December 15, 1916, the government thermometer registered a temperature of 12 degrees below zero and during December both in 1882 and 1884 the mercury dropped to 17 below. The maximum temperature for last month was 60 above, but in December, 1914 a high mark for the month of 65 above was set. The greatest daily range last month was 37 degrees, whereas the normal range of a December day for the last 35 years is 32.9 degrees.

The total snowfall last month was 13.1 inches and the total rainfall was 3.3 inches, which is about normal for December. The greatest rainfall in any 24 hours was a half inch. Rain fell on sixteen days, 12 days were clear, 7 days were partly cloudy and 12 were wholly cloudy.

INTEREST CENTERS
ON WAR NOT PEACE

Allies and Central Powers Hold Conferences, Causing Belief Battle Will Continue.

FORMER MEETING AT ROME

(By United Press.)

London, Jan. 8.—Conferences held by the allies and the central powers indicate that interest now centers on war—not peace. The belief prevails here that the recent peace efforts are to be answered by the force of arms.

The allies conference was at Rome. Premier Lloyd George and other high officials represented England; Premier Briand represented France and Russia sent a member of its general staff. The conference was taken here to forecast a more vigorous prosecution of the war.

The Teutonic conference was reported to have been held at the field headquarters of the kaiser. It was believed here that the Central Powers conference was to discuss what had happened to the German peace plans.

Germans Come to This Conclusion Because of Change in America's Political Policy

KAISER MAKES STATEMENT

(By United Press.)

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The discussion in congress at Washington on America's international relations following the recent peace notes has resulted in the belief that the United States and the allies are gradually drifting together rather than that the United States and neutrals are co-operating for peace.

This belief has been aroused by the discussion of a change in America's international and political policy which would make foreign alliances possible. The kaiser has declared in a statement that the Entente reply may be considered a refusal of Germany's proffer of peace.

WEATHER FOR THE WEEK

Washington, Jan. 8.—Ohio valley and Tennessee.—The temperature during the week will be near the seasonal normal. Rains or snows are probable about Tuesday, and again Thursday or Friday. Otherwise the weather will be generally fair.

A penny supper will be given on Thursday evening in the basement of the new Baptist church. Extensive preparations are being made for the supper. The VanOsdel orchestra will play during the serving hours, beginning at 5 o'clock.

CONTROLLED BY FARMERS

North Dakota's Legislature Gets Down to Business Today.

Bismark, N. D., Jan. 8.—North Dakota's farmer-legislature got down to business this week without pomp or ceremony.

It was a legislative session entirely dominated by a farmers political organization that had its birth in the idea of co-operative marketing of grain without speculation.

From the Equity Co-operative exchange, standing solely for the open unspeculative food market, grew the Farmers Non-Partisan league of North Dakota. This organization stood for state control of all elevators, non speculative markets, and public ownership of public utilities. In two elections it swept into the legislature sufficient members to control the law making body.

AN AGED COUPLE

Tell How They Regained Strength and Vigor.

Steuenville, Ohio.—"My husband is 79 years old and I am 78 years of age and we owe our good health to Vinol, the greatest strength creator and medicine there is. When either one of us get into a weakened run-down condition, Vinol has never failed to build us up and restore strength. We have often said we would not be living now were it not for Vinol."—Mary A. KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—bitious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The officers and teachers of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday School will meet on Wednesday evening at the church following the revival service. Every teacher is urged to attend inasmuch as it is to be a very important meeting. Officers are to be elected.

Mrs. Wilbur Piper was honored on Saturday evening when, because of her birthday, about fifty of her friends surprised her at her home. They brought with them an elegant luncheon which was served late in the evening following a round of cards and a musical program.

In honor of Miss Kathryn Watson, who together with her mother and brother left for the south today, the Dunning Music Study Club gave a dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Will Meredith. The three course dinner was preceded by the regular club program which was in charge of Deryl Case.

A pleasant holiday meeting of the Priscilla Art Club was held on Thursday afternoon with Miss Mary Hinchman at her home in Falmouth. Lovely decorations, entertainment planned and delicious luncheon combined in furnishing a good time for the ten club members. The next meeting will be with Miss Miriam Frye, January 25th.

What the Women's Clubs Are Doing

Now that the holiday recess is over, the clubs of the state are starting in with renewed vigor on the programs for the year 1917. The last meeting of the Magazine Club of Columbus was given over to music. Responses to the roll call were given by naming composers; a review of the Musician's Magazine was given and "Indian Music" discussed.

Mrs. Demarechus Brown lectured on "Zola" before the last meeting of the Carey club of Connersville. A very up-to-date program was carried out by the Culture Club of Newcastle this week. The subjects discussed were "Woman's Work and Influence;" "What Women are Doing;" and "History of the Woman's Movement." Another very practical program was given at the meeting of the Progressive Literary Club of Richmond at their last meeting. Subjects for papers were "Public Utilities;" "How a Bill Becomes a Law in Indiana;" and "Relation of the Home to Public Health."

At the last meeting of the Mother's Circle of Greensburg "The Building of the Girl" was discussed. The subject for the next meeting is to be "The Building of the Boy"

Household Hints

Do you still mix flour and shortening for pie crust or biscuits in the primitive, old-fashioned way? I mean, by rubbing the ingredients in your hands and having the unpleasant task of washing them afterward, besides wasting the flour and lard. You can buy a regular pastry fork to relieve you. It has four flat tines, sharpened at the lower edge, and mounted in a short metal handle. The cook flours the fork, then cuts the hard shortening into the flour, which separates the shortening into little particles, each coated with the flour. The same fork can be used to mix the dough, as the milk is added, and the hands need not touch the pastry until it is ready to be rolled out.

Place thick blotting paper in a strong solution of oxalic acid. When the paper has absorbed all it can hold, remove and dry. Keep blotter in desk. Use it to take up an unfortunate blot while the ink is wet, and no stain will show.

It is "as cheap to sit as to stand," should be observed in the kitchen of all places. A revolving stool, or any kind of high chair or seat, will prove a boon to the kitchen worker. It is no longer regarded as a sign of laziness to sit while you work; it shows wisdom. Have tables and shelves arranged to suit your own height. Stooping and bending tire the body, and spoil the figure.

I noticed my hostess making gravy with but a "thimbleful" of milk with the water, yet it was delicious and had a pleasing flavor wholly unknown to my grivies. "Just a suspicion of celery salt and a wee pinch of sugar, in addition to the usual salt and pepper, will transform the most plebeian gravy into a savory dish," she confessed.

In cold weather fill a small bag with powdered pumice stone; while perfectly dry rub it over your windows. This polishes lamp chimneys also.

Try using sausages instead of the usual slices of pork. The beans will absorb all of the fat and leave the sausages dry and delicious.

Finding that baby caught cold in his pen from the furnace draft I put a curtain of heavy muslin around it, pinning it at the top and tucking it under the floor of the pen.

Wet your flour with warm water instead of cold when mixing thickening for gravies, pastes, etc., and you will find the lumps will disappear like magic.

When removing the baked potato from the oven do not forget to burst the skin, else the potato will become slightly burst the skin and then bake soggy. If you boil it before baking,

With a small rake clear out the furnace ash pit. You will then have the charred pieces of unburnt coal or coke for fire use, and your coal bill will be very much reduced.

In the list of committee appointments announced today by Speaker Eschbach shows that Representative Jinnett of this county received appointment to a place of fifteen committees. He failed to get the chairmanship of the committee on public morals, but received places on several important committees.

Representative Jinnett was made chairman of one committee, that of fees and salaries. He was made a member of the following committees: labor, state medicine, reformatory institutions, cities and towns, congressional apportionment, telephone and telegraph, public libraries, judiciary, education, affairs of Indiana State Prison, claims, fees and salaries, railroads, county and township business.

WOMEN WILL RULE THIS OREGON TOWN

From the Mayor on Down Fair Sex to Have Charge of Government at Umatilla.

MAN SUCCEEDED BY HIS WIFE

(By United Press.) Umatilla, Ore., Jan. 8.—Umatilla's city government passed this week into the hands of a woman administration. From Mrs. Laura Starcher, mayor, down to the police department all officials are of the gentler sex except two lonely males who must serve as "hold-overs" in the council.

E. E. Starcher, railroad telegrapher, handed over the robes of office to his wife. He vacated the little room where he has directed town's destinies for many months, and the madam took the helm. One of Mrs. Starcher's first acts will be to name the woman police force.

"A woman can do the work," said Mayoress Starcher, "better than any man." She added that if any obstreperous lawbreakers invaded Umatilla during the female regime a man or something would be designated to handle the situation, under orders from the boss.

On taking office Mrs. Starcher promised the city a business administration, and said she would effect improvements her husband's regime failed to attempt.

ANITA STEWART SAYS—

(COPYRIGHT 1916-VITAGRAPH)

Speaking of Poise.

Poise is sometimes called self-confidence. The two go hand in hand at any rate, and without self-confidence one's poise will be lacking.

When I was first asked to visit the motion picture theatres and speak to my friends the idea was something of a nightmare to me. Never having spoken a word on the stage in my life, every thought seemed to leave me when I opened my mouth to speak publicly. No matter how carefully I had prepared my chat, I managed to forget every single word that was in it. That was—when I first attempted personal appearances at motion picture theatres.

Gradually, however, I became more at ease, and at present it is every bit as easy for me to speak from the stage as it is for me to talk informally to my particular friends.

Poise is a quality which both you and I desire. We may cultivate it if we go about the matter in the right way. A clever hostess or even a clever guest must have poise.

The first step towards poise is control over the feelings. Never does a well poised person show dislike or contempt for anything. If one has a temper one overcomes it or at least controls it.

Besides being at ease themselves, well-poised persons have the indescribable faculty of placing those about them at ease as well. Haven't you ever heard a person say, "Oh, she is a wonderful hostess—all enjoy themselves at her home. Somehow she puts you at your ease without even seeming to." The secret of this balm for bashful guests is the graciousness that comes in a large bottle marked "Poise."

Everyone of us wish our guests to enjoy themselves at our house parties and other social affairs. In order to have this so we must attain poise. Good-luck to you, everyone, in your quest. For you are going to seek it, I know.

SALES FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We get too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the lower region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, indigestion and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

YOUNG SPANISH ARTIST ARRIVES

Coming of Ortiz Echague Causes Ripple of Excitement in New York Society.

HONORED BY KING ALPHONSO

Paintings Are Pronounced as Most Brilliant Example of Modern Spanish School.

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 8.—Quite a ripple of excitement is running across the surface of Gotham society today over the arrival of the youthful and handsome Spanish painter, Ortiz Echague. (Pronounced Ay-chaw-way.) Senor Echague is an honor guest of the Metropolitan museum of art and quite the vogue in the society colonies of the Eastern United States, a number of whose most charming feminine members he has been commissioned to paint.

Perhaps more interest than the display of any single picture ever has caused in Buenos Aires is being shown by art critics in the portrait, now on exhibition, of Mrs. Rosa Monditegui, one of the leading figures in Argentine society, by Echague.

Echague, who is among the best-known of the younger Spanish generation of artists, began his real career in Madrid in 1908, following his return from the Spanish Academy of Art in Rome, where, as the holder of a scholarship awarded by the Madrid government, he spent five years. During 1908, 1909 and 1910 he obtained high awards in numerous national and international contests and had, as sitters, many of the leading women of the Spanish nobility.

Then following a tour of Europe, in which the young artist won especial successes in Italy and Holland, and later in Paris, the most conspicuous mark of approval which, up to that time, he had received, was bestowed upon him in 1913, when he was summoned to the royal palace in Madrid to paint a portrait of King Alfonso, which his majesty presented to Czar Nicholas.

Echague was in Buenos Aires in November, when he left for New York to execute several important commissions in the United States.

His paintings are pronounced by critics as among the most brilliant and original examples of the modern Spanish school.

MARTHA HARDWICK DIES

Expires Sunday in Manila of Pneumonia After Long Illness

Mrs. Martha Hardwick, 49 years old, died Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Westerfield in Manila, following an illness of several weeks from pneumonia. Mrs. Hardwick was born in this county and was widely known in the Manila community. She is survived by one sister who lives in Miami county and one brother, J. A. Dillon, of this county. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at the Westerfield home and burial will take place in the McCarty cemetery.

ARLINGTON HOME BURNS

Fire Destroys William Stanley's House at Loss of $600

Fire at four-thirty o'clock this morning destroyed the residence of William Stanley in Arlington. The loss is estimated at $500 or $600 and is fully covered by insurance. The house, a three-room frame cottage, was located at the extreme north part of Arlington and when the blaze was discovered the entire roof was on fire. The family succeeded in getting out most of the household goods.

should be elected it would be a disgrace to the city I am sure.

"Men, stand together above all things. The forces of evil are, always united and that is the reason they have been getting the best of us in the past. It is amusing now to have the politicians come around and say that they are going to stand with the church crowd now because the saloon crowd is tricky and they never know where they are. The saloon crowd is always organized and that's the point. If you are organized, too, you can beat them at their own game."

Dr. Pearson said it was the duty of every church man to stand against the forces of evil. Organized, the church can accomplish anything, he asserted.

"If a city like yours is wet," he continued, "the church men should make it dry and if a city like yours is dry, the church men should see to it that it does not become wet."

"It is not only the intention of God that the church should be militant, but that it should be a unit. There are 186 different faiths today. Up until 25 years ago churches sprang up fast, but the last quarter of a century we have come to realize that Christ's idea of the church is unity. Religion is no longer a thing of opinion but of fellowship."

He recalled that many churches springing from the same denomination were considering uniting, and at the same time the denominations are getting closer together. Dr. Pearson said that when he went to Indianapolis as secretary, he told the church organization that if the churches could learn to work together in evangelism, they could learn to work together in other things. He asserted evangelism to be the hottest in which united action grows. Dr. Pearson said the simultaneous evangelistic campaigns were started three years ago, and that the first year 3,500 members were added; the second year, 7,000; the third year over 8,000, and this year the goal is 10,000. He then showed how the churches had become a factor in civic betterment because they had learned the value of joining their forces in evangelistic campaigns.

While discussing the value of union, he urged upon the Christian men the necessity of urging upon their legislators active support of the state-wide prohibition bill which will come before the legislature and was roundly applauded.

In closing he pleaded for personal evangelism as Jesus' idea of winning souls for Christ.

GRAND JURY GOES IN SESSION AGAIN

Many Witnesses Heard This Morning and More Are Ready to Testify This Afternoon

MORE CHARGES EXPECTED

The grand jury resumed operations this morning after a vacation of two weeks. A large number of witnesses were on hand this morning and the afternoon found another batch waiting to testify.

Most of the witnesses today were from this city. It would not be surprising to see the grand jury return another large number of indictments. Before adjourning for the holidays the grand jury returned a total of 45 indictments. All but two of the men indicted have been arrested.

It is understood that the grand jury "clean-up" will take in the entire county. Witnesses are to be recalled from Arlington as conditions there are said to still be bad despite the fact that a number of people were indicted and a pool room supposed to have been cleaned up.

SHORT COURSE OPENS TODAY

make the course for farm betterment in Indiana.

In addition to the regular courses in the various branches of farming and home making there are separate classes for the boys and girls and many counties have sent delegations of young people who have been enrolled during the past season in the very successful boys and girls club work in Indiana. Then there are on the week's program such added features as the annual sessions of the Corn Growers' Association, the Live Stock Breeders, the State Dairymen's Association, the Sheep Breeders and the Home Economics Association, each convention having its own program that fits into the general schedule for the week.

We fill our ice chest in winter from a bucket of water which we left over night to freeze.

No Strange Experiments

"Did you have a hominy when your minister came to dinner, Mrs. Jimes?" "Dear me, no, men. I don't never try them strange dishes."—Baltimore American.

Seek to learn what is best rather than to learn much.

In talking with J. H. Tarplee of Oneal Bros. we are informed that there will be another bumper sale on Simplicity Incubators this year.

Jim says that he never sold anything that met with such universal favor as the Simplicity and every user is a booster and with the addition of the moisture gauge this year's incubators to the operator.

Jim also says that he will have lots of chicks to sell now soon. It's a nice sight to see a lot of fluffy chicks just coming out of the shell.
